IN BLESSED MEMORY

Memory Book

2021/5782

It is a fearful thing to love
what death can touch.

A fearful thing to love,
hope, to dream: to be –
to be, and oh! to lose.

A thing for fools this, and
a holy thing,
a holy thing to love.

For
your life has lived in me,
your laugh once lifted me,
your word was gift to me.

To remember this brings painful joy.
'Tis a human thing, love,
a holy thing,
to love
what death has touched.

–Chaim Stern

At Yizkor, our sacred hour of remembrance, we recall our loved ones who are no longer sitting beside us. We yearn to hear their voices once more, to complete an unfinished conversation, to share another meal or milestone. Even in our pain, we know that deep sadness is a reflection of deep love. Even in our pain, we know we were blessed – to have had a love so big for as long, or as unfairly short – as we did.

Our tradition very intentionally offers fixed times for communal remembrance. Each of us may call someone different to mind, but we are united in memory.

May the memories of our cherished family, friends and fellow congregants inspire us to “endow our fleeting days with abiding worth” and to make our life a blessing to those who will come after us.

It is a fearful thing to love what death can touch.
But a Holy thing, to love.
And to Remember.

–Rabbi Angela Warnick Buchdahl

TO THE DEPARTED

The departed whom we now remember have entered into the peace of life eternal. They still live on earth in the acts of goodness they performed and in the hearts and lives of those who cherish their memory. May the beauty of their lives abide among us as an everlasting blessing. May the Source of Peace send peace to all who mourn and comfort all the bereaved among us.

הַמְּקוֹם יִנְחֶם אֶתְכֶם בְּתוֹךְ שְׂאֵר אֲבֵי צִיּוֹן וִירוּשָׁלַיִם.

May God console you among the mourners of Zion and Jerusalem.

*In the rising of the sun and in its going down,
we remember them.*

In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter, we remember them.

*In the opening buds and in the rebirth of spring,
we remember them.*

In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of summer, we remember them.

*In the rustling of leaves and in the beauty of autumn,
we remember them.*

*In the beginning of the year and when it ends,
we remember them.*

*When we are weary and in need of strength,
we remember them.*

*When we are lost and sick at heart,
we remember them.*

*When we have joys we yearn to share,
we remember them.*

*So long as we live, they too shall live,
for they are now part of us,
as we remember them.*

Let the glory of God be extolled, God's great name be hallowed in the world whose creation God willed. May God rule in our own day, in our own lives, and in the life of all Israel, and let us say: Amen.

Let God's great name be blessed forever and ever.

Far beyond all the praises, songs, and adorations that we can utter is the Holy One, the Blessed One, whom yet we glorify, honor, and exalt. And let us say: Amen.

For us and all of Israel, may the blessing of peace and the promise of life come true, and let us say: Amen.

May the One who causes peace to reign in the high heavens let peace descend on us, on all Israel, and all humanity, and let us say: Amen.

May the Source of peace send peace to all who mourn, and comfort to all who are bereaved. Amen.

O God full of compassion, Eternal Spirit of the universe, grant perfect rest under the wings of Your Presence to our loved ones who have entered eternity. Source of Mercy, let them find refuge forever in the shadow of Your wings,
 and let their souls be bound up in the bond of eternal life.
 The Eternal God is their inheritance. May they rest in peace, and let us say: Amen.
